| | The Birth of a Yarn Line – Jeffrey Wall & Dennis Rinkenberger Since we are known as the Scandinavian yarn guys we had received several inquiries about z-twist yarn for twined knitting. After contacting a couple Swedish mills that produce a z-twist yarn for twined knitting with no interest in exporting and with Dennis' contact at JaggerSpun we embarked on a journey to create a yarn line. We worked with the mill to determine the best wool available to the mill for our desired final product. We sent the mill samples of the z-twist yarn from Sweden and the Rauma Finullgarn to give them an idea of what we were hoping our final product to resemble. We then sent the dyehouse color samples for the initial color range and they sent back some test dyes for approval. We worked with a designer on creating a logo for the new yarn line. | |
